SUMMIT CHRISTIAN ACADEMY

Summit Christian Academy (SCA) comprises a non-denominational, independent school system, offering grades Pre-K through 12 to the greater Northwest Austin, Texas community. As a college preparatory, co-educational school that began operations in 2003, SCA also features character development rooted in traditional values and a strong emphasis on service to the community. SCA is fully accredited through the Association of Christian Schools International (ACSI).

ADMISSION GUIDELINES

Summit Christian Academy offers a program for students who desire an excellent education in a Christ-centered environment. SCA evaluates student candidates based on their character, academic record, and behavioral background. SCA evaluates applicants academically by reviewing a student's most recent report card, his/her academic transcripts, and his/her current scores from a nationally-normed achievement test. Students scoring in the top 50% of the nationally-normed test are considered for admission by the admission committee.

STUDENT BODY

The total enrollment for the 2022-2023 school year was . Elementary (PK-5) enrollment was 148. Middle School (6-8) enrollment was 69 and High School (9-12) enrollment was 73. Sixteen students comprised the Class of 2023.

CLASS RANK

SCA ranks the top two students in each class in order to name Valedictorian and Salutatorian. Except for the top two places, SCA does not rank. SCA uses a graduated 4.0 grading scale. The school offers honors and pre-AP classes on a 5.0 scale, as well as advanced placement and dual credit classes on a 6.0 scale. The Valedictorian and Salutatorian must have attended SCA their last six semesters, and they must maintain the highest two grade point averages (GPA's).

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS
